

Basic Detail Report

Dimensions

9.25 x 6 in. (23.5 x 15.2 cm)

Jar

Date

1837-1890

Primary Maker

Weyman and Brothers

Medium

Stoneware clay with alkaline glaze, cobalt and albany brown slip

Description

Salt-glazed stoneware storage jar, probably used to hold tobacco or snuff; light gray color, smooth-sided cylindrical form, tapering inward slightly at the neck; inside of rim has a concave flared shelf, apparently to fit a tapered sealing lid; interior of vessel has a dark-brown Albany-slip glaze; face of jar is stencilled with maker information; most of the jar's base is unglazed.