Description

Silver and metal coin bracelet. The bracelet is made of eight metal circular coin pieces that are attached by metal chain links. The coins start small and gradually grow larger toward the middle of the bracelet. Six of the coins have the same depiction on them. Starting from the left of the bracelet, the first coin has a chain link on the right and a clasp on the left. The depiction is that of a partially curved object. There are symbols in a circle surrounding the object. The next coin to the right has an eagle with its wings fully extended. To the right of that piece is a circular flower symbol. The next piece has a larger flower with an ivy plant. To the right of this coin is the exact same coin depiction. Continuing right the next coin is the exact same as the first eagle depiction. The next coin depicts the same flower symbol as the second coin depicted. The last piece on the right has a depiction of a snow topped mountain. There is a clasp at the right of this coin. Each piece has a border made of dots along the edge. It has a V-shaped end and a cuff that must hold the far left clasp together to make a complete bracelet. On the backside the coins are concave.
