

Basic Detail Report

---

Dimensions

18.5 x 11.75 in. (47 x 29.8 cm)

Jar

Date

1879-1890

Primary Maker

Elverson, Sherwood & Barker

Medium

stoneware clay, salt glaze, cobalt and albany slip

Description

Salt-glazed stoneware jar, possibly a butter churn: tall, straight-sided, heavy weight; light buff-colored body clay has fired to a pale grey-buff color; two applied pulled handles at shoulder, with incised decorative line at start of neck; broad, tall upper rim, with internal shelf to fit a lid or, in the case of a churn, a dasher assembly (not intact); heavy dark-brown slip lining inside; pale cobalt-blue stencilled label provides maker information.