Description

Painting on rectangular piece of light green construction paper. Paper is covered with ink lines and paint. The black ink lines form a series of boxes and geometric shapes over most of the construction paper. Within the black ink lines, there are a series of painted splotches. The paint colors range from a light pink and purple, to a light green, blue, magenta, and yellow. The uppermost paint towards the left corner is yellow with some grey blue paint over. Across the top from that is a light green and light purple mixture which spreads down the right side of the image. Towards the left center, there is a blue, green, and light purple smear. Towards the right, there is a magenta and darker green smudge.
