

Basic Detail Report

Nappy

Date

1860-1869

Primary Maker

Boston & Sandwich Glass Company

Medium

Glass

Description

Colorless glass nappy. McKee Brothers' Bellflower pattern, also known as Ribbed Leaf pattern or Ribbed Bellflower pattern. Small nappy with scalloped rim. Design consists of a single vine undulating horizontally through the middle of the body with 2 bellflowers, 2 leaves, and 2 shamrock-shaped leaves. The background is ribbed and extends into the scallop; the inside of the bowl is smooth. The base is clear with a 23-panel beveled sunburst, which extends to 1/8" from footring. Straw mark on center of base. Footring is clear.

Dimensions

1.125 x 4 in. (2.9 x 10.2 cm)