Description

Color lithographed sheet metal crane toy. Red, blue, yellow, black, and white toy in the shape of a stationary single jib crane. Center has horizontal crane platform with control room at rear and crane arm mounted at front. Crane arm has wooden drum at end and base with blue-green string running over the drums; when crane is in upright position, the string hangs down to the bottom of the central platform. Below central platform is crane tower base that sits atop a flared circular hollow base. Yellow switch on one side of base at top locks and unlocks the crane's movement and the gray metal crank arm on the opposite side from the switch controls the crane's circular movement. Gears inside base at top. Maker's mark on left and right sides of the control room, on the underside of the control room, and the toy number is on the rear of the control room.
