Description

Animatronic angel Christmas decoration. Cylindrical wooden base covered in plaster(?) and painted white. Kneeling angel figure atop the base is made of wood, covered in plaster(?), and painted flesh-colored. Angel holds hands in prayer position. Angel has synthetic gray curly hair and wears a gold empire-waist dress with bell sleeves and ruffled collar; fabric has fine texture brocade and has trim around sleeves near ends. Angel's face is roughly represented in paint. Angel's wings are of an unknown substrate covered in beige-pink fabric which is then covered with beige-pink netting decorated with gold star sequins. Animatronic function is controlled by a motor inside the base; the angel's head moves slightly proper left and her hands move up and down. Rubber electrical cord emanating from motor ends in a two-pronged plug.
