Description

Rectangular cotton fabric art quilt. Quilt is comprised of an underlying grid of 24 pieced rectangles that construct an abstracted image of the Roberto Clemente Bridge (Sixth Street Bridge). Large yellow bridge portal dominates the quilt with smaller yellow bridge portal at bottom center. Background sky is in various shades of turquoise/teal/blue. Foreground road is black, gray, and white. Small red detail to the right of the smaller portal. Most of the fabrics are patterned and some have printed text. Reverse shows intricate machine-quilted customized design of the same two bridge portals, two-lane road in foreground, and sky filled with curvilinear quilting. Narrow edge finish in same colors as quilt. Cotton and polypropylene blend batting. Reverse has black fabric hanging sleeve along top edge. Reverse has two maker squares in bottom right corner.
