

Can, Beer

Date

c. 1970

Primary Maker

Fort Pitt Brewing Company

Medium

metal, paint

Description

Twelve-ounce Old Shay Golden Cream Ale beer can. Body of plated ferrous sheet metal, crimped and sealed at edge to form a cylinder, with attached formed-metal base. Aluminum top crimped to body with detachable pull-tab closure. Lithographed direct label in yellow, white, black, and gold has beer name in old fashioned letters, above an illustration of a couple riding in a two-wheel buggy, drawn by a white horse, along a road finished in a metallic gold color.

Dimensions

4.75 x 2.625 in. (12.1 x 6.7 cm)